EXPERIENCE THE BEST OF PERU

WIN THE HOLIDAY OF A LIFETIME TO PERU!

Enter our competition and win the chance to explore some of Peru's finest sights on a nine-night holiday for two

Inkaterra and Journey Latin America are offering you and a friend the chance to experience authentic Peruvian hospitality and a range of cultural activities and excursions into the wild, as well as staying in Inkaterra's luxury hotels.

Your trip will begin in the Amazon, on a canoe across Lake Sandova, or night walks through the rainforest at Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica, on the edge of Tambopata National Park. From here, you'll travel to Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel to explore the cloud forest and the hotel's orchid gardens before trekking to the site itself, one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Finally, you'll arrive in Cusco, the former Inca capital, with its UNESCO World Heritage centre and markets, where you'll stay at Inkaterra La Casona — once the home of a conquistador and, later, the headquarters of former Venezuelan leader Simon Bolivar.

Founded in 1975, Inkaterra is dedicated to protecting Peruvian wildlife, plants, and historical and cultural heritage through tourism, education and scientific research. Its properties are home to the world's largest collection of native orchids, rare hummingbirds, an organic tea plantation, extensive medicinal and botanical gardens, and a project aimed at reintroducing the endangered Andean spectacled bear to the wild.

Journey Latin America is the UK's premier travel specialist for Central and South America. With over 30 years dealing exclusively with Latin America, they offer practical advice on how to organise the journey of a lifetime. www.inkaterra.com
