

INKATERRA ASOCIACION NEWS

ITA SHARED EXPERIENCES AT THE "I NATIONAL TOURISM CONGRESS: CHALLENGES AND EXPECTATIONS"

César Vallejo University in Piura, Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality, organized the congress to analyze national and international challenges and expectations in the hospitality industry, and to empower the knowledge among the attendees. Mr. José Purisaca, ITA General Manager, shared successful experiences in tourism and conservation, an important example of Ecotourism in Peru.

BIOLOGIST CARMEN SOTO MAKES SCIENTIFIC TRIP TO USA

Carmen Soto, ITA Biologist Coordinator at Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel, travels to the United States to work with the prestigious botanical, Carl A. Luer, at the Missouri Botanical Garden. The work consists in identifying probable new orchid species for science registered at Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel.

PHILIP WITTMAN AND THE SAN ANTONIO DE ABAD UNIVERSITY GAVE A CONFERENCE AT INKATERRA MACHU PICCHU PUEBLO HOTEL

Last July 15th and 17th, the well-known ecologist Philip Wittman, specialized in high canopy structures, gave a conference on "Insects of Peru" at Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel. Among the attendees were the guardians of the Machu Picchu Natural Reserve, specialists from the Ministry of Culture, and Inkaterra's staff members. Wittman also had the opportunity to give this conference for teaching members and students in Cusco at the UNSAAC, Faculty of Biology Science.