UNU SPA

Popular with those heading to the ancient citadel of Machu Picchu is an intimate Andean-style village on the hill slope, waterfalls, stone pathways and 83 whitewashed adobe casitas tucked away in the Andean cloud forest. Within its five hectares (12.3 acres) of exquisite natural beauty, 294 bird species have been registered; as also the world's largest native orchid collection (AOS) - (372 species) in its natural habitat. The renowned Unu Spa combines classic nurturing with a mystical Andean approach and the first-class restaurant shares the secrets of Peruvian cuisine with a contemporary twist.
