JOURNEY THROUGH CUSCO - PERU WITH INKATERRA EXPERIENCES

Enjoy the stunning scenery of the Sacred Valley at Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba, a contemporary hotel with colonial inspiration, built in the heart of Urubamba Valley. Then, explore Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel, within five hectares of tropical gardens in the heart of the Cloud Forest. Continue to discover the Inca and colonial legacy in Cusco at Inkaterra La Casona, an exquisite 16th century colonial manor that has been carefully restored.

7 days / 6 nights: Sacred Valley (2 nights); Machu Picchu (2 nights); Cusco (2 nights)

DAY 1 LIMA – CUSCO – SACRED VALLEY OF THE INCAS

Cusco city

Private transfer to the Sacred Valley of the Incas, a good starting point for your visit to the Cusco region with its moderate altitude, pleasant climate, beautiful scenery, picturesque villages, and friendly local people. Stop at "Manos de la comunidad" where weavers from more than 12 communities of Southern Peru demonstrate the spinning, dyeing and weaving techniques used in making traditional Andean costumes. Visit the colorful market of Pisac where an artisans' fair takes place, an exhibit and sale of fine woven crafts, colorful tapestries, handicrafts and textiles from Pisac and neighboring villages.

Afternoon at leisure to rest and enjoy the activities available and overnight at Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba.

Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba

DAY 2 SACRED VALLEY OF THE INCAS

Maras

Full day guided visit to Chinchero, Maras & Moray. Chinchero - a small Andean Indian village, located high-up about 30 km. Moray - huge circular agricultural terraces built by the Incas in natural sinkholes on a limestone plateau overlooking the Urubamba valley. It has been suggested that they have a cosmological meaning, but their function, other than agricultural, remains a mystery. Maras - ageold terraced salt mines and ponds sit below the colonial town.

Lunch on the route, dinner and overnight at Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba.

DAY 1

Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica

Arrive into Puerto Maldonado, coined the Capital of Biodiversity. A motorized wooden boat hugs the meandering river banks to reach your eco-lodge, Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica, ensconced in the heart of the rainforest.

After a short briefing, settle into your palm-thatched cabaña before enjoying lunch à-la-carte. In the afternoon, explore the Trail System for an immersive introduction to the Amazon's rich biodiversity.

Join the Twilight River excursion to witness the jungle transform from a diurnal to a nocturnal world: animals and birds of the daytime give way to species specially adapted to the shadows of the night.

Dinner and overnight at Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica.

Madre de Dios River

DAY 2

Sandoval Lake

Enjoy an early buffet breakfast from 05:00 and visit Lake Sandoval, a glassy, ox-bow lake located inside the protected Tambopata National Reserve. Board a dug-out wooden canoe to quietly paddle through mangroves and glide onto Lake Sandoval. Return to the lodge for lunch.

In the afternoon, climb the thrilling Inkaterra Canopy Walkway, a network of 7 ecologically built suspension bridges almost 30-meter-high, to enjoy panoramic views of the rainforest and observe its diverse wildlife. Then, hike the Anaconda Walk through a 200-meter elevated wooden platform where you will be able to observe diverse species and interesting trees.

At night, explore the jungle on the Rainforest by Night excursion, discovering its nocturnal wonders.

Dinner and overnight at Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica.
