

10 Places for a Good Night's Sleep

BY CHRISTINE • 18. SEPTEMBER 2015 •
ALLGEMEIN

The weekend is just in front of us and relaxation mode will be on soon. Whether at home or traveling, the suite and bed is where you wind down after a full day of the daily grind or new adventures. While all Green Pearls® members offer extraordinary comfort, here a list of 10 places for the best sleep you will ever have. Maybe, you will not want to get out of bed at all anymore!

1. Haidl-Madl, Germany

Right upon entering Haidl-Madl, guests will feel like coming home: in order to protect the wooden floors, guests are asked to take off their shoes. The scent of wood is apparent throughout all vacation apartments and while laying in the spacious and comfortable beds, guests can close their eyes and not only dream of being close to nature.

2. Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica, Peru, South America

Find rustic luxury in the wooden cabana Tambopata Suite of Inkaterra Reserva Amazónica for sweet Peruvian dreams. All-cotton sheets offer maximum comfort, while the views onto palm trees add to the South American setting. For a shorter siesta, the guests can catch a break in their private hammocks.

3. Leithof, South Tyrol, Italy

At Leithof, the beds out of Swiss pine spread a very special scent that has a calming effect and ensures a very deep sleep. Here, bedding out of natural materials also adds to a good night's sleep. No more counting sheep here!

4. Familien-Landhotel Stern, Tyrol, Austria

While Familien-Landhotel STERN offers exquisite beds and rooms, it is their special bed-time offerings that are unique! „Heu-Scharchn“, which means „Hay-Snooring“, is possible in good weather conditions, where families can sleep one night in a hay bed. Twice a year, families can also spend the night camping on an alp, with a fire pit and beneath the stars. There is no night's sleep closer to nature!

5. Agriturismo L'Adagio, Italy

Each room at the Ligurian Agriturismo L'Adagio is unique in its interior design. From elegant to modern, minimalistic to provincial, there is something for every taste. But is there anymore Italian, than waking up at this small, cozy place with a romantic view onto the town of Badalucco from the bed?

6. Riad Ana Yela, Marrakech

If you want to sleep like in Arabian Nights, the Riad Ana Yela in Marrakech is the place to be. Settled in a 300-year-old city palace, the surrounding itself makes guests dream of being in a true fairytale. Cozy up in their comfortable beds and start dreaming.

7. Reethi Beach Resort, Maldives

If there is one nature sound that is relaxing to many, it is the waves from the ocean. Imagine, waking up to this sound every morning – which is possible at Reethi Beach Resort on the Maldives. Opening your eyes and looking straight onto deep turquoise waters will make you feel relaxed and ready to start the day fresh.

8. CGH Earth Spice Village, India

At CGH Earth Spice Village, guests will feel like royalty in the majestic wooden beds. The completely untouched village in the middle of South India's nature, excludes loud traffic noises and any sounds that disturbs a good night's sleep. Rather, guests wake up to the happy chirping sound of birds, starting each day close to nature.

9. Milano Scala, Italy

In the middle of the city of fashion and still without city noises, guests can find a good night's sleep at Hotel Milano Scala. The suites are styled coinciding with important operas, which will not only find liking among music enthusiasts. Whether business or pleasure, this Italian green pearl will guarantee an eco-chic stay.

10. Zeavola Resort, Thailand

Going to sleep and waking up with a view onto the ocean – what more could you want? Zeavola's Pool Villas offer guests a spectacular view with floor to ceiling windows right in front of the bed in Thailand's Koh Phi Phi.