Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba, Peru

The Inkaterra group has been championing eco-tourism to Peru for 40 years and this year opened Hacienda Urubamba in the Sacred Valley. Close to Cusco, the 10-acre farm is run using only traditional tools – sticking to the company’s core philosophy of respect for the local environment. Guests can enjoy eco-tours to nearby quinoa farms, hikes through the hills to a lake and, of course, the famous Inca Trail to Machu Picchu. For more information, visit inkaterra.com.
