

AUTHENTIC ADVENTURE-INKATERRA HACIENDA URUBAMBA

Sacred Valley of the Incas, Peru

WE SAY: This new lodge, hidden away in a sacred valley, is locally-built, locally-owned, locally-run and all the food comes from, yes, the local area. It doesn't get any more authentic than this. You can yomp through the mountains spying hawks and hummingbirds. You can learn about Inca astronomy or stare at 1000-year-old fabrics and armour that belonged to actual conquistadors. Or you can grab a pisco sour, stare out at the views and do very little at all.
