Now Christmas is over, it's time to plan new adventures. Here's some holiday hot spots for you to try this year...

Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwickshire

Even after several centuries, Shakespeare's plays continue to impress and entertain audiences worldwide with his works translated into more than 75 languages. This year though, attention will be firmly focused on his birthplace Stratford-upon-Avon, marking the 400th anniversary of his death on April 23 with a series of new openings and special exhibitions.

Learn about Shakespeare's personal life through artefacts on display at a re-imagining of his former family home, New Place, where he lived for the last 19 years of his life and wrote year, along with a new discovery tour, Page To Stage, giving a behind the scenes look at the famous playhouse and an opportunity to look inside the RSC's store of 30,000 costumes.

Botswana

Excellent wildlife sightings, a commitment to conservation and a good range of luxury accommodation options make Botswana a top safari destination.

On September 30, the country will celebrate 50 years of independence, prompting Lonely Planet to declare it the number one destination to visit in 2016.

Discover the Okavango Delta, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, from the comfort of the newly renovated 12 tent Belmond Eagle Island Lodge, where activities include game drives and boat trips through the ever-changing waterways.

The Okavango's unusual topography has resulted in various animal adaptations, such as swimming lions. Stay at private concession Duba Plains, where film-makers Dereck and Beverly Joubert famously documented the resident pride who hunt buffalo in broad daylight.

Botswana also has one of the highest populations of endangered wild dog and Belmond's Khwai River Lodge, on the border of the Moremi Wildlife Reserve, is currently a good place to track them.

Peru

Peru has always been a bestseller in South America, and bookings are set to further soar when British Airways launch a new direct flight from Gatwick to Lima on May 4, from £561 return.

Capital city Lima has a lively gourmet scene and boasts some of the continent's top restaurants; experiment with flavours at award winning Central (centralrestaurante.com.pe/en/), where the menu is based on ingredients foraged from Peru's different altitudes, or sample national dish ceviche (raw fish cured in citrus juice) at lunch only restaurant Chez Wong (facebook.com/ChezJavierWong).

Inca citadel Machu Picchu is undoubtedly one of Peru's highlights, with passes for the popular Inca Trail selling out months in advance. Tourists now have more comfortable options for a stay in the Sacred Valley, allowing them time to acclimatise to higher altitudes and enjoy the scenery. Last year, Inkaterra opened the Hacienda Urubamba and in August Explora will launch new property Valle Sagrado on the site of an ancient corn plantation. Both can be reached by road from Cusco.

India

The cinema release of Disney's The Jungle Book in April will put the spotlight on India and its most famous animal resident - the Bengal tiger. These highly endangered creatures are notoriously difficult to spot, but Exodus (www.exodus.co.uk) will be giving it their best shot on a 16-day escorted Land of the Tiger tour exploring classic Kipling country, with various departures between October and April.

Bengal tiger safaris are a key focus of the trip, with considerable time spent in three of the key national parks - Pench, Kanha and Bandhavgarh. The trip costs from £2429pp (two 26 major works. The new attraction has been billed as the single most significant project to commemorate the playwright's legacy.

Then delve further into his past by visiting Shakespeare's Schoolroom & Guildhall at King Edward VI School, where the Bard honed his writing skills. Following a major restoration, the 15th century building is open to the public for the first time.

The Royal Shakespeare Company (RSC) will be staging productions throughout the sharing), including accommodation, most meals, guides, 15 game drives and flights.

Utah, USA

This year, America's National Park service celebrates its 100th anniversary, providing a good excuse to visit some of the country's most pristine and protected areas. The state of Utah is home to a 'Mighty 5' parks, and with Delta's new daily direct flight from Heathrow to Salt Lake City operating from May 2 (from £754 return), it's even easier to reach.

Marvel at the wind-sculpted sandstone structures in Arches National Park, explore the towering hoodoos in Bryce Canyon, or discover a 100-mile warp in the Earth's crust at Capitol Reef.

After dark, the sightseeing continues at several designated International Dark Sky Parks. Photograph the Milky Way above the famous Mesa Arch landform in Canyonlands, or wander through ancient Puebloan ruins at the Natural Bridges National Monument.

During the winter season, Utah is a favourite destination for skiers and snowboarders. The recently opened Cherry Peak Resort, near Logan in northern Utah, features three triple chairlifts and a 1.25mile run.

San Sebastian, Spain

As the European Capital of Culture 2016, this city in northern Spain will host a series of talks, exhibitions and events throughout the year. (See dss2016.eu/en/ for a full programme.) But the main draw continues to be the fantastic range of restaurants and bars available, many of which regularly appear in The World's Best 50 Restaurants list. Spend a weekend sampling some of the 200 pinxto bars in the Old Town, serving the Basque version of tapas, or incorporate the city into a wider itinerary.
