GLOBAL GATHERING

The Tatler Travel Awards – for the best by far

It was like travel Top Trumps at the Lanesborough for the annual Tatler Travel Awards – who had travelled furthest to be there? Was it Luke Bailes, who jetted in from South Africa? Or Val Kempadoo, who came all the way from St Kitts? No. It was the Bickle sisters, who'd swooped in from Australia to snaffle one of the best hotel of the year awards from presenter Claudia Winkleman and her sensational sidekick, Tatler's very own travel editor, Francisca Kellett. Guests compared air miles while enjoying smoked-salmon eclairs, Nyetimber sparkling wine and Beluga vodka cocktails. Claudia promised all the guests they could stay the night (they couldn't) – and confessed that she loves hotels more than anything in the world, including her husband.
