New Revised Rate for Kenya's Mara Expedition Camp

Great Plains Conservation is announcing revised nightly rates at our Maasai Mara located, Mara Expedition Camp, for the remainder of 2017.

The incredible offer includes a revised rack rate of only $660 per person per night sharing valid for the 2017 migration season (1 June - 31 October 2017).

Revised Rack Rates

- $500 per person sharing until 31 May 2017
- $660 per person sharing 1 June - 31 October 2017
- $500 per person sharing 1 November - 19 December 2017
- Maasai Mara Conservation fees of $80 per adult per day are applicable
- Please note that Mara Expedition Camp is not included in the "fly free" special which applies to Mara Plains Camp and ol Donyo Lodge only.
- Find the revised rack rates here.
- Email info@greatplainsconservation.com for your updated nett rate contract

Perfect for the Migration

- Mara Expedition Camp is an intimate 5 tented camp tucked away on a small bend in the Ntiakitiak River, where a thick riverine forest meets savannah in the north-central section of the Masai Mara.
- Set just inside the main Maasai Mara Reserve, Mara Expedition Camp is perfectly positioned for the wildebeest migration and provides easy access to river crossings sites.
- This access to the main Maasai Mara is combined with traversing rights in the Mara North Conservancy offering an escape to the quiet and exclusivity of a private conservancy.

There is still space at Mara Expedition Camp between June and October 2017 and these new lower rates make Mara Expedition the perfect choice for travelers hoping to see the migration this year. Valid for new bookings from 17 March 2017 forward.
