Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica, Tambopata (Prices & Photos)

This remarkable hotel is located within the Tambopata Nature Reserve, a private ecological reserve in one of Peru's most remote regions. Visitors are transported by boat, taking a 45-minute scenic ride along the Madre de Dios River to reach the peaceful rainforest retreat. The guest rooms all sit in their own private cabin area, and by choosing the 840-square-foot Suite Tambopata, you'll get your own private plunge pool too. No matter which one you choose, all 35 of the spacious thatched-roof cabins feature handmade furnishings, fine linens and king-size beds with mosquito netting, along with cozy robes and slippers, high-end organic toiletries and luxurious towels. Many visitors come to take advantage of the natural excursions on offer, including trips into the wildlife-filled Amazon jungle.
