Tea time around the world: Fancy places to take a sip

Posted: 05/10/17

Mothers around the world will enjoy afternoon tea at a wide range of places on Mother's Day, but it can be a great experience any time. Here are some places to check out as you travel.

Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel, Peru

Located in an intimate Andean village with terraced hills, waterfalls, stone pathways and 81 whitewashed adobe casitas tucked away in the cloud forest, Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel has a twist to the classic afternoon tea with guests picking fresh tea leaves, pressing it over wooden blocks and finally sealing their own tea bag at the property's organic tea plantation and tea house. After a long day of adventuring, enjoy a glass of fresh iced tea or cocktail with homemade pastries overlooking the surrounding forest.
