PLAN YOUR TRIP

STAY • Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel, a National Geographic Unique Lodge, where you'll feel as if you're in a secret garden—or in a secret cloud forest. The hotel harbors hundreds of orchid, bird, and butterfly species and miles of trails, plus a smattering of cozy casitas and a welcoming riverside restaurant. Romantic extras include a twilight walk to a waterfall and candlelit sauna session for two in the spa's eucalyptus hut. inkaterra.com

EAT • Map Café, occupying the glassed-in patio of a beautiful old estate turned pre-Columbian art museum in Cusco. Among the renowned Novoandino specialties is the quinoa cannelloni with tomato, arugula, and goat cheese. cuscorestaurants.com

PLAY • Explore the Sacred Valley of the Inca, which begins just outside Cusco. The drive alone is worth the price of admission, but you should also make a few stops: Maras (surreal, sparkly salt pond terraces that cascade down a mountainside), Moray (mystical-feeling Inca crop circles), Chinchero (where a church built atop Inca ruins dominates the bucolic landscape), and Ollantaytambo (an impressive and climbable collection of Inca ruins). Habitats Peru can customize a Sacred Valley tour or any other romantic itinerary. habitatsperu.com
