

Inkaterra | American Spa | July 2017 | Circulation: 28,123

SPA OPENINGS & UPDATES *continued from page 93BRAZILIAN RESORT OPENS AS GRAN MELIÁ FLAGSHIP

Originally built in 1972 by renowned architect Oscar Niemeyer, Gran Meliá Nacional Rio de Janeiro, recently reopened as Gran Meliá brand's flagship property after a decade of being abandoned. Located near the beach and recognized as a national heritage site, the 412-room resort is situated in the city's exclusive São Conrado area and features a number of enticing offerings. Highlights include a circular design and glass façade as well as the Roof Top Bar that offers views of Rio de Janeiro. The property also features an invaluable collection of modern art and the only Spa by Clarins in Latin America. The 720-square-foot spa features four treatment rooms and offers a number of exclusive Clarins services, including the Contorno ($82, 50 minutes) treatment. Ideal for getting guests beach ready, the service includes lymphatic drainage and modeling for immediate slimming results.—JULIE KELLER CALLAGHAN

New Montage Brand Unveils First Hotel and Spa

Spa Pendry has been unveiled at Pendry San Diego, the debut property from Pendry Hotels, a new hospitality brand from Montage. Located on the hotel's third floor and featuring a contemporary design with grey, blue, and white tones and abundant greenery, the spa features four treatment rooms and a private outdoor garden with four private cabanas. Guests are welcomed with a customized AromaBar sensory journey during which they work with a therapist to select a signature blend for their experience. Another wellness-focused highlight includes the Spa Pendry Meditation Lounge, where guests can partake in guided meditation based on their brain-wave activity via a personal EKG headband and accompanying iPad and sip on healthy teas and tinctures from Naturopathica. Other features include The Pool House rooftop lounge; a eucalyptus steam room; and a state-of-the-art fitness center.—J.K.C.

Organic Spa Blooms in Machu Picchu

Spa del Bosque has been unveiled at El MaPi in Machu Picchu Pueblo (Peru). Located on the top floor of the byInkaterra property, the retreat features panoramic views of the iconic village and is surrounded by a cloud forest. Among the highlights of the four-treatment-room spa are a pine sauna, hydro-massage showers, a heated plunge pool, and a hydration zone. Services are performed exclusively using Inkaterra-branded products that are 100 percent organic and derived from botanical extracts and indigenous Andean herbs and grains. Ideal for guests in search of soothing after exploring the region, a menu highlight is MaPi Therapy ($83, 80 minutes), a combination of services including a leg treatment, a relaxing massage, a cranial massage with Inca techniques, and lymphatic drainage.—J.K.C.

THE WELLNESS CLINIC LAUNCHES AT HARROD'S

Located on the fourth floor of Harrods in London, The Wellness Clinic offers an array of integrative and holistic treatments in its 10,550-square-foot space designed by architect Stanton Williams and featuring furniture from Harrods Interiors. The clinic features 14 treatment rooms, two personal training studios, a private consultation room, and a photography studio featuring a Vectra 3D Scanner System. Services, consultations, and more are available from The Phi Clinic, Elixir Clinic, The New York Dermatology Group, Gen Identity, 111 Cryo, Dr. Ben Carraway, Dr. Barbara Sturm, Dr. Maryam Zamani, Dr. David Jack, Louise Parker, and Ross Barr. Among the available offerings will be IV infusions, diet and personal training guidance, DNA-based skincare treatments and products, medical aesthetics offerings, cryotherapy, acupuncture, chiropractic services, and more.—J.K.C.

