That our five hotels are among the winners of such a famous contest is a celebration of ecotourism as a means to sustainable development, a concept we began 42 years ago when we opened our first shelter in the Peruvian Amazon.

The 2017 Readers Choice Awards are the result of the voting of more than 300,000 readers of the magazine, who provided millions of ratings and tens of thousands of comments to share their recent travel experiences in cities, islands, hotels, resorts, cruises, airlines and airports. All winners will be celebrated in the November edition of Condé Nast Traveler, as well as online: www.cntraveler.com/rca.
