

JUNE: Peru

If culture is top of your honeymoon hotlist then head to Peru and its mind-blowing Inca Trail. Don't be put off by the tourists at Machu Picchu. There's more than enough room for everyone and once inside the UNESCO world heritage site you'll only have eyes for the mountain views and incredible feats of the Inca civilisation. Make the trip all the more romantic at rustic chic Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel in the nearby town of Aguas Calientes, inkaterra.com

If the South Pacific is on your travel bucket list, the Cook Islands are worth considering for your June honeymoon. Retreat from the world at the Pacific Resort Aitutaki, which holds host to an open-air spa, 27 rooms that are all on the beach and two dining options.

If staying closer to home is more what you had in mind for your honeymoon in June, Crete in Greece is worth considering. Spend your days sunbathing and feasting on food and wine overlooking the Aegean Sea. Stay at Daivos Cove, home to a private beach and three restaurants.

June is also a good time to head to Asia and sample what Malaysia has to offer. Our top accommodation pick is The Datai Langkawi in Kedah. It's surrounded by tropical rainforest
