

Home / Breaking / News: Experience Latin America To Return To London In June

News: Experience Latin America To Return To London In June

f Share

🐦 Tweet

G+

in

✉

↗

📅 Published date: Wednesday February 28, 2018.

The Latin American Travel Association has announced 29 first time exhibitors to the fifth edition of Experience Latin America - Europe's only travel trade event dedicated to Latin America.

Returning to CCT Venues in Canary Wharf, London, from June 11th-13th, the show will feature over 130 exhibitors for a three day by-invitation-only event offering the Latin American travel community the opportunity to present their products to the UK and European tourism industry during scheduled meetings, seminars and networking events.

New exhibitors for 2018 include local tour operators such as Camino Travel, Careli Tours Nicaragua and Cuba Private Travel, and hoteliers such as Hotel B in Lima, Hotel Carlota in Ecuador, Hotel Hangarao Eco Village & Spa in Colombia and Jashita Hotel in Mexico.

Returning to Experience Latin America are the tourist boards from Peru, Belize, Quito, Mexico and Brazil, airlines such as Air Europa, Copa Airlines and Gol Airlines, LATAM Airlines and United Airlines, as well as hotels and destination management companies from across the region such as Alto Atacama Desert Lodge & Spa, Argentina Travel Partners, Araras Eco Lodge, Belmond, Crillon Tours, Inkaterra, and Hacienda Hotel Vira Vira & Sol y Luna.

For regular updates on Experience Latin America, follow Experience Latin America on Twitter @ela_BY_LATA and @latauk or search the official event hashtag #ELA2018.

TPBank
A deeper understanding

MORE UNDER BREAKING

Trump's Tariff Threat On European Cars Could Spell Big Trouble For Germany

Breaking - Monday Mar 05, 2018

The war of words between President Donald Trump and the EU could lead to some serious pressure on the German auto indust...

AXA Buys Bermuda-based XL For $15 Billion In Latest Insurance Mega-deal

Breaking - Monday Mar 05, 2018

France's AXA moved to buy Bermuda-based XL Group for $15.3 billion on Monday.

Our Companies Must Not Cross "bright Red Line" On Corruption: Temasek Holdings

Breaking - Monday Mar 05, 2018

Temasek called on firms it has stakes in not to cross "red line" after a bribery scandal at Keppel Corporation.