Ernest Hemingway in Peru

MAY 08 2018

Ernest Hemingway, writer and Nobel Prize winner, is shown with a welcoming committee of hostesses on his arrival at Talara, Peru, on April 20, 1956. Cabo Blanco, a world famous deep sea fishing resort, was where Hemingway would supervise the location crew in filming fishing scenes for "The Old Man and The Sea." Cabo Blanco was chosen for the scenes after desperate attempts were made to land a sizeable Marlin off the coast of Cuba. 1000-pound Marlines are not an unusual size at Cabo Blanco.
