Peru's Sacred Valley of the Incas now has an Inkaterra organic spa at the Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba. The new Mayu Spa is based on the Urubamba river and traditional Andean architecture. It displays views of the hotel's organic gardens and peppertree forests.

The Inkaterra organic spa has a plunge pool, nearly five private therapy rooms and a dry sauna with services including a range of massage therapies, Andean Stone therapy and reflexology. Every treatment uses 100 percent natural products taken from native medicinal herbs in the region. Every one of Inkaterra's spas utilizes natural ingredients harvested locally on the property.
