Visit This UNESCO World Heritage Site

There's nothing that teaches kids more about history than a visit to a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and Machu Picchu is at the top of the list. When you stay at the Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel, you'll have a selection of excursions and nature walks to choose from, including guided tours through the ancient citadel of Machu Picchu, orchid walks on the property and visits to the spectacled bear project. The hotel is an intimate Andean village with terraced hills, waterfalls, stone pathways and 83 whitewashed adobe casitas tucked away in the cloud forest—perfect for getting away from it all.
