AUTUMN TIME IS CUDDLING TIME – THE COZIEST HOTELS FOR DULL DAYS

© Berghotel Rehlegg

After a long and sunny summer, autumn days can be quite dark and dreary. But when we cuddle in front of the fireplace after a visit of the sauna listening to the rain patter against the windows, fall is not bad at all.

SNUGGLING WITH MOUNTAIN VIEW

At Berghotel Rehlegg late summer is wonderful: enjoy swimming in the panorama-indoor pool or in the heated outdoor pool with a gorgeous view of the majestic Watzmann, Göll, and Brett as well as the Hochkalter. The climate-positive hotel is located amidst the heart of the Alpine National Park Berchtesgaden and after a hike through the autumn woods, the Almwies'n Spa attracts the guests with treatments based on regional medicinal plants and herbal mixtures. All you have to do is decide: should be a massage with beeswax from the hotel's own beekeeping or do you prefer a herbal stamp massage?

RELAXATION CLOSE TO NATURE AT AN ADULTS-ONLY REFUGE

In the sun-spoilt Vinschgau in South Tyrol, autumn displays its most brilliant colors and lures us into nature around the vegan Biotique Hotel LA VIMEA. Yoga on the wooden deck in the morning, a walk in the nature park at noon and a visit of the small forest sauna in the evening – pure relaxation! The LA VIMEA is vegan with a holistic approach which means sustainable and vegan at all levels, be it the food, furniture, architecture or the general lifestyle. Whether spring or fall, a special highlight all year long is the creative kitchen. Regional, seasonal and purely vegan – and always delicious.

ACTIVE HOLIDAY & WELL-EARNED TRANQUILITY

In our stressful everyday life, we often miss spending time with our partners. At Naturhotel Outside in the Alps, you can catch up and spend some quality time together. Embedded in the picturesque landscape of the Nationalpark Hohe Tauern, your sustainably designed room provides you with a fabulous view over the mountain scenery. At the Nature Spa, you can also try out regional specialties such as a goat milk bath, herb wraps, a Glacier Peeling or the East Tyrolean Hay Bath.

“A place in the middle of outside, where we can feel ourselves again, relax calmly, enjoy the regional ingredients that have been turned into delicious meals, and meet people that are good for us.” Naturhotel Outside

REFUGE FOR EVERYBODY SEEKING RELAXATION

The Refugium Lindenwirt lives up to his name: it is located in the Bavarian Forest and a vacation at the eco-hotel stands for well-being and regeneration. The offer of the spa reaches from classical massages to beauty treatments and nutrition counseling as well as detoxification programs and special wellness offers for children. You are welcome to spend a lovely time not only with your partner but with the whole family and you can stay in one of the family apartments. Still in a bad mood because of the autumnal weather? We recommend the Hawaiian Lomi Lomi massage and the sanarium with light therapy – autumn fatigue really does not stand a chance!
