Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica Canopy Tree House

Puerto Maldonado, Peru

Number of rooms: 1

Cost per night (minimum 2 nights): From around $600

You're pretty much sleeping with the wildlife in this private cabin, which sports a traditional palm thatched roof and wooden floors. You even get walkie-talkies in order to call the Canopy Butler. The room is linked by a suspension bridge to the resort's quarter-mile 103-foot-high canopy walk (of which you'll get a spectacular night-time tour).
