Taking a vacation is a time for you to relax and enjoy doing your favorite activities. It is an opportunity to try new things, give yourself a treat and to have memorable experiences. There are many factors that contribute to making a vacation a fantastic experience.

These include the location, the amenities and facilities available at your destination, the services offered and the activities available to keep you entertained during your stay.

Opting for a luxury holiday has the potential to be an amazing experience as this type of vacation offers you the best of everything. If you have the cash to splash, then the world really is your oyster and you can choose between the most luxurious destinations from across the globe.

If you are thinking of taking a break and luxury is a key element of your enjoyment, then you may wish to consider on of these top 20 luxury destinations.

1. The Seychelles

When thinking of beautiful places, The Seychelles is one of the first places that comes to mind. With rare wildlife, crystal clear waters, lush rainforests, and breath-taking beaches all outlined before a striking backdrop of rocks, this truly is like paradise.

One of the best ways to fully experience this archipelago is to take a cruise around the islands. 'Espirit' from Crystal Cruises is a fantastic way to take in the views while enjoying luxurious surroundings. 'Espirit' has just 30 cabins, so it feels like a private yacht but still has all the facilities and services of a luxury liner.

2. Tanzania

A visit to Tanzania combines a safari experience with luxury. It is one of the best options for people who want to enjoy a fantastic climate and get back to nature while also enjoying high-class accommodation and catering.
